

Tentative Agenda

10:30: to 11:30	Inaugural address Panel Discussion: Mr. Abhay Damle, Joint Secretary, MoRTH Mr. OP Agarwal, CEO, WRI India Ms. Cara Gizzzi, Director of Public Safety Education and Outreach, UL
11:30 – 13:00	Session 1: Safety of public bus fleets Roundtable Format: Moderator: Amit Bhatt, Director of Integrated Transport, WRI India  A presentation of the bus safety work followed by a roundtable discussion with officials from SRTUs, MoRTH, and ASRTU to deliberate on the need for policies and processes for improving safety. The objective is to discuss the challenges and opportunities for improving safety of public bus fleets; this will lay a road map for the upcoming work.  An indicative list of participants: MoRTH, ASRTU, ARAI, CIRT, BMTC, APSRTC, KSRTC, NEKRTC, TNSTC, DTC, UPSRTC, Tata Motors, Eicher, Volvo, Ashok Leyland, Hubert Ebner, City Traffic Police, NIMHANS, JP Research
13:00 – 14:00	Lunch
14:00 – 15:30	Session 2: Role of corporates in advancing road safety Roundtable Format: Moderator: Madhav Pai, Director of Sustainable Cities, WRI India  A background presentation of work done under Haryana Vision Zero by leveraging the partnership with a leading industry association, NASSCOM. This session will drive a discussion on how corporates can contribute towards reducing road fatalities either through improved road safety policies or through CSR investment. This session will also allow for exploring impactful corporate partnerships aimed at improving road safety.  An indicative list of participants: NASSCOM, Shell, Toyota, Mercedes Benz, Honda, Dell, Genpact, PVR Cinemas, Bosch, Nagarro, Diageo